DA Investigators and Law Enforcement Partners Make Arrest on Drug Sale and Gang Charges

(Bakersfield) – Kern County District Attorney Cynthia Zimmer announced a drug sale and gang charges arrest. On April 3, 2024, Kern County District Attorney's Office Investigators, Kern County Probation Department Officers, and a Kern High School District Police K-9 Officer conducted a probation search in the 3300 block of Pasadena Street in Bakersfield, across the street from Colonel Howard Nichols Elementary School.

The search resulted in the seizure of over 70 grams of methamphetamine, cash, and other indicia of narcotics sales. Joshua Lostaunau, 44, was arrested and booked into the Kern County Jail for drug sales and gang charges.

Kern County District Attorney Cynthia Zimmer commented; "Monitoring felons to ensure they comply with probation terms is necessary for upholding justice and protecting our communities. Any probationer who violates those terms will be held accountable."
