Employer Services

Competitive Solutions

Layoff Aversion

We can assist you to coordinate services and strategize cost-saving alternatives to avoid downsizing or closing your business.

Transitioning

When strategies to avert layoffs and closures are not enough and downsizing becomes necessary, our Rapid Response Team can help alleviate the impact on your business and your staff with on-site planning and orientations.

Workforce Intelligence

Labor Market Information

Be informed about labor market trends, statistics, and workforce data that applies to your business or the economy. For up-to-date information visit labormarketinfo.edd.ca.gov.

Facilities for Employers

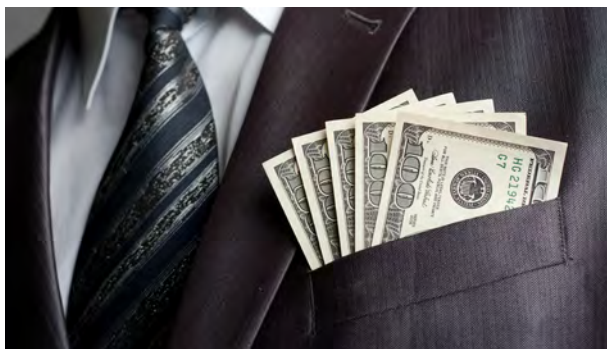

Employers' Training Resource offers employers several areas within its facility, as well as multiple locations across Kern County, for businesses to conduct meetings, workshops, trainings, recruitments, job fairs and more.

On-The-Job Training

The On-The-Job Training (OJT) program is designed to assist employers who are not able to fill their labor force needs with currently skilled workers. Employers may use an OJT to hire new employees who qualify for Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) funding which is administered through Employers' Training Resource.

EMPLOYERS SAVE TIME & MONEY ON THEIR HIRING AND TRAINING COSTS

Through this cost-saving program, employers can hire new qualified employees eligible through the Workforce Innovation & Opportunity Act (WIOA). Reimbursement is provided to employers to pay for a portion of that employee's wages or salary during their training period.

Financial Hiring Incentives

Work Opportunity Tax Credits (WOTC)

Federal tax credits are available to employers who hire individuals qualifying as members of federally designated groups.

Enterprise Zone Tax Credits

Businesses located within specific boundaries are offered the opportunity to reduce their state business income tax liability through a variety of tax benefits.
