Tol Morales Found Guilty of Assault with a Deadly Weapon and Domestic Violence Related Charges
People v. Wildson Tol Morales: Kern County Superior Court Case BF199120A

(Bakersfield) - Kern County District Attorney Cynthia Zimmer announced a domestic violence jury conviction. On January 31, 2025, in a case prosecuted by Deputy District Attorney William Mord, a Kern County jury found Defendant Wildson Tol Morales guilty of assault with a deadly weapon, domestic violence, false imprisonment, and felony child abuse.

On April 4, 2024, Tol Morales and his wife were out at a party. When they returned home, he attacked his wife with a pair of scissors while she was holding their 1-year-old child in her arms. Tol Morales then threw his wife on the floor and got on top of her, preventing her from escaping. An underage family member pulled Tol Morales off of the victim and choked Tol Morales unconscious so that the victim could escape. Officers observed defensive cuts on the victim's hands and found blood on the floor, walls, and interior doors of the home as well as blood on the 1-year-old's clothing.

District Attorney Cynthia Zimmer commented on the conviction, stating; "Domestic violence is one of the most devastating and prevalent crimes in our community. It shatters families, leaving lasting physical and emotional scars that victims and their children carry for a lifetime. I am grateful for this conviction which ensures accountability and provides crucial protection for the victim."

Sentencing is set for March 4, 2025, before the Honorable Tiffany Organ-Bowles in Department 8 of the Kern County Superior Court. Tol Morales faces up to 9 years, 8 months.

Anyone experiencing domestic violence is encouraged to seek help at the Kern County Family Justice Center. All services are free and there is no appointment necessary.
