Man Who Shot Into South Bakersfield Home Convicted of Multiple Felonies
People v. Alfredo Camacho: Kern County Superior Court Case BF197470A

(Bakersfield) - Kern County District Attorney Cynthia Zimmer announced a felony conviction today. On February 10, 2025, in a case prosecuted by Deputy District Attorney Victor Ghaly, a Kern County jury found Alfredo Camacho guilty of Shooting at an Inhabited Dwelling, two counts of Assault with a Firearm, and being a Felon in Possession of a Firearm and Ammunition. The court also found that the Defendant had two prior strike convictions.

On December 18, 2023, a juvenile was outside his home in South Bakersfield, preparing to leave for school. While he was outside, Camacho drove by and fired shots at the house. At the time of the shooting, the juvenile's mother was inside. Two bullets struck the home—one passed through a bedroom and into the bathroom, while the other hit the laundry room.

District Attorney Cynthia Zimmer commented on the conviction; "Camacho's actions put an innocent mother and her son in extreme danger. As a strike offender, he faces a significant prison sentence - bringing justice to the victims and ensuring peace of mind for the Bakersfield community."

Camacho was convicted of Residential Burglary in 2003 and Assault with A Deadly Weapon in 2010 – both strike convictions. As such, Camacho is facing an elevated sentence of 45 years to life in prison at his sentencing hearing scheduled for March 27, 2025, before the Honorable Kenneth C. Twisselman II in Department 9 of the Kern County Superior Court.
