Ramirez Convicted for Burglary Involving Roommate
People v. Jenner Ramirez: Kern County Superior Court Case BF198852A

(Bakersfield) - Kern County District Attorney Cynthia Zimmer announced a burglary conviction today. On April 8, 2025, in a case prosecuted by Deputy District Attorney Matthew Holder, a Kern County jury found Jenner Ramirez guilty of First-Degree Burglary and petty theft. The court also found true that Perez had utilized a position of trust or confidence in the commission of the crimes.

On April 3, 2024, Ramirez entered the bedroom of his roommate while she was in the shower. He had sublet a room in the Central Bakersfield apartment. The victim had suspected that Ramirez had been stealing from her and left her phone in her bedroom to record. Ramirez was seen entering the victim's room, leaving after a few moments, and returning some time later carrying the victim's wallet in his hand before locking the door on his way out. When returning to her bedroom, the victim recounted her money and determined that some of her cash was missing.

When the victim discovered the video of the theft, she called police, who searched Ramirez's room. There officers discovered not only cash, but also articles of the victim's undergarments, hidden under Ramirez's pillow.

District Attorney Cynthia Zimmer commented: "The victim endured these acts in what should have been the safety and security of her own home. Ramirez exploited that trust, but fortunately, his criminal behavior has been brought to an end with this conviction."

Sentencing is set for May 8, 2025, before the Honorable John Oglesby in Department 3 of the Kern County Superior Court. Ramirez faces up to 6 years in prison.
