Filing of Criminal Charges against Kevin Mays, CSUB Assistant Basketball Coach
People v. Kevin Mays: Kern County Superior Court Case BF206641A

On September 3, 2025, Bakersfield Police Officers were notified of a pimping and pandering case involving Kevin Mays, the assistant basketball coach at California State University of Bakersfield (CSUB). Officers worked with the Sacramento Police Department to safely locate the Confidential Victim and gather evidence related to investigation. Mays was subsequently arrested.

Today, criminal charges were filed against Mays including felony charges related to pimping and pandering, the possession of illegal firearms including that of an assault weapon, and the possession of methamphetamine and marijuana for purposes of sales. Several aggravating factors were also alleged, including the commission of crimes involving a particularly vulnerable victim and those involving a high degree of planning and sophistication. Misdemeanor counts related to firearms and drug possession were also charged.

Mays is scheduled to be arraigned on September 8, 2025 at 3:00pm in the Kern County Superior Court.
