

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Deadline to Cure Ballots is Sunday, November 30th, at 5pm

Bakersfield, California – November 26, 2025 – The Kern County Elections Division reminds voters that the deadline to cure their ballot is Sunday, November 30th, at 5:00 pm. Voters requiring a cure for their ballot envelope were notified by mail and/or phone call with instructions to complete the necessary Signature Verification/Unsigned Envelope Statement. This form is available on KernVote.com.

Voters may submit their completed form by any of the following options:

- Dropping it off at the Kern County Elections Division office located at 1115 Truxtun Ave.
- Faxing it to (661) 868-3768.
- Emailing it to Elections@kerncounty.com.
- Depositing it in the Kern County Elections Division drop box located at 1115 Truxtun Ave.

This is the final opportunity for a voter to ensure their challenged ballot is counted. Voters with questions or requiring assistance may contact the Kern County Elections Division.

For more information, please visit the Kern County Elections Division website at KernVote.com or call the office at (661) 868-3590.
