

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
June 23, 2026

Media Contact: Kristy Torres
Public Information Officer
Oropezk@kerndhs.com | 661-633-7104

Social Policy Institute's Child Welfare Review

(Bakersfield, CA) – The Social Policy Institute at San Diego State University has completed its assessment of Kern County's Child Welfare System. The assessment will be presented at the Board of Supervisors Meeting, Tuesday July 28, 2026, during regular session starting at 9:00am.

Additionally, the Social Policy Institute at San Diego University, will host a Community Conversation to present the findings and recommendations of Kern County's Child Welfare Review.

Community Conversation- Event Details

- Thursday July 30, 2026—6:30 PM to 8:30 PM (English/Spanish)
Boys & Girls Clubs of Kern County, Armstrong Youth Center
801 Niles St., Bakersfield CA 93305

Registration NOT Required

For more information, the community may contact socialpolicyinstitute@sdsu.edu.

The community is invited to participate in this event, where an open discussion will be held regarding the recent findings and recommendations. Child Welfare leaders will be in attendance, ready to listen to feedback and outline their immediate next steps. This gathering offers a valuable opportunity for all voices to be heard and for collaborative progress to be made.