District Attorney Lisa S. Green announced today that a Kern County jury convicted Dennis Williams of numerous domestic violence crimes that occurred on two separate occasions. Those crimes included attempted murder, attempted domestic violence with a weapon, domestic violence, and intimidating a witness. The jury also found the defendant inflicted great bodily injury during the second offense while on bail.

While Williams was out of custody on bail from the first domestic violence assault, he entered the same victim's home and attempted to kill her by strangling her. Dennis Williams is facing 19 years in prison and scheduled to be sentenced on September 20, 2018, before the Honorable Judith K. Dulcich. The case was prosecuted by Deputy District Attorney Alexandria Ottoman.
