District Attorney Lisa Green made an announcement today regarding the sentencing of Louis Truman Magee, Jr. On January 19, 2018, a Kern County jury convicted Magee of one count of attempted murder with premeditation and deliberation, one count of stalking, one count of criminal threats, two counts of violating a restraining order, one count of assault with a deadly weapon on a peace officer, one count of felony evading, and one count of hit and run.

Between January and May of 2017, Louis Magee repeatedly contacted and threatened his ex-girlfriend in violation of a court ordered restraining order. These contacts were threatening and placed the victim in constant fear. On May 1, 2017, Magee called the victim and threatened to kill her, and then subsequently arrived at the victim's home. When police arrived, Magee attempted to hit one of the officers with his vehicle and led officers on a high-speed pursuit. The following week, on May 9, 2017, Magee arrived back at the victim's residence and attempted to make entry into her home. When officers arrived, the defendant was found hiding in his car with a murder kit, which included items to kill the victim and dispose of her body.

On February 15, 2017, Louis Magee was sentenced to 14 years and 4 months to life by the Honorable Superior Court Judge John Lua.
