

Ally Triolo
Chief Communications Officer

Ally Triolo serves as Kern County's Chief Communications Officer. She was appointed to the position in 2021 by Chief Administrative Officer Ryan J. Alsop. Ms. Triolo leads the Office of Countywide Communications – Kern County's media hub designed to bring people closer to government. Ms. Triolo also acts a liaison between the County and local news outlets, ensuring the community stays informed about County business through interviews, press releases, and contributing articles in Bakersfield Life Magazine.

Ms. Triolo is a former award-winning television anchor and reporter who received the GoldenMic Award for best one-hour broadcast celebrating her noon newscast. She spent nearly three years with KBAK/KBFX, BakersfieldNow, and hosted "Farm to Fork" on KGET-17, highlighting Kern County's agriculture industry in conjunction with healthy recipes tied to local farmers and their harvests.

Ms. Triolo graduated from the University of Texas at Austin with a bachelor's degree in broadcast journalism and a Creative Writing Certificate. She's proud to be a fifth-generation Kern County resident and is grateful for the opportunity to promote her community, the place she loves most.
