

D.A. Wanted Fugitives

Name: Armando Hernandez Lujan

Wanted for: Murder

Kern County Superior Court case number: BF77148A

Investigating Agency: Bakersfield Police Department

Identifying Information:

- Male; Hispanic
- 5'6"
- 130 lbs.
- Black Eyes; Black Hair
- DOB: 10/28/71
- Place of Birth: El Paso, TX.

Date/Time of Crime: 11/22/95

Facts of Crime: On November 22, 1995, Lujan was involved in a fight with the victim at a family party. The victim left the party and was walking home with his girlfriend when Lujan then left the party with his girlfriend. Lujan drove in the direction in which the victim was walking and then ran the victim over killing him. Lujan fled to the Los Angeles area after the killing. On September 3, 2009, a DMV fingerprint comparison was made on Martin Juan Gonzalez (DOB: 5/27/76) with CDL#B7320996 with that of prior booking prints for Lujan and they matched. It is believed that Lujan assumed the name of Martin Juan Gonzalez to evade capture.

If you have information on this case, or the whereabouts of Armando Hernandez Lujan, please contact the Bakersfield Police Department's secret witness hotline at (661)322-4040.

Do not attempt to apprehend this fugitive yourself. This individual is considered to be very dangerous and may be armed.